Grid co-ordinates are also floating-point values, but the centre of the first array element always has grid co-ordinate 1.0, no matter what the pixel origin may be. Thus, the first element covers a range of grid co-ordinates from 0.5 to 1.5.